GRAVESEND, N. Y., July 14.—The training conditions were most agreeable during the galloping hours at the Gravesend race track this morning. The ture was perfect and a cool breeze play both man and beast. The track, which had not dried out sufficiently to make it fast, was in a sticky, slew condition that precluded anything in the watch-break-

One of the most conspicuous moves of the morning was brought off when Trainer Rob Boyle sent the trio from the Krauss stable, Dr. Reis, Yentlew and
